Subject: Re: Karma Xma2016 Holidays

Well it's better in the USA here isn't great at all. But about karma what I'm saying is she can't travel without me Shamel she's too young. And super attached you know that. Of course she can come to Atl but it has to be when I am going also.
By November isa things should be finalized I am guessing it's all in the hands of lawyer and what shady says I guess. I don't ask Shamel because it's too much for me.
But by 1st week of November should all be over. You can come then I understand how much you miss her.

I did not get what you are trying to tell me. She won't come! Or will come for a short period? So do not count I will come to Cairo at least for the time being . And If will come. It will be just to close and end all lose ends. decided I am settling in the states for good. Not necessarily ATL as started looking for other option and will list the house sub lease starting next year as I can't just end the lease after what I spend and invested . Is too big on me. And too expensive for single man..

So please tell me what is the final decisions for karma... in all cases I need to come and see her before xmass I can't stay another 2 months without seeing her ...I am just waiting your final decisions regarding divorce idea . If you insist I believe by mid Nov. you will be done and every thing will be finalized, though till today I don’t have one single valid reason for asking for your divorce, unless you have someone else in your life .

It's ok I understand the lawyer contacted shady and he said he is traveling until Tuesday and he will contact the lawyer when he comes back.
For karma she can't be away from me Shamel for a longtime she sleeps with me all the time it's different if I'm in Atl and she spends a night. But being continents apart she won't be able to. She's too young to be so far away from me now. You can understand that I'm sure.

Next month is too late, it's the high seasons in EU and USA the flights started to be booked , the available class is too expensive. When Karma vacation start?

can came and take her and she travels with me,, or I can check with Britney, if you are ok with the second option, i need to contact Britney from now, also to see with her if she can travel Aslan and to come at least twice a week... I prefer sure the second option, I hope she is not working full time! And I trust Britney..
So you can plan your self too ..it will be a long vacations.

PS. When your father is planning to finalize the divorce paper, don't get me wrong, but at least to know the date of my divorce .Thanks

I haven't thought at all for now. She can't travel alone Shamel I need to be with her. I am going to wait and see by mid November if I can bring her and come. If not maybe you should come here and spend time with her. Let's see by mid next month and we can arrange for something isa.
The most important thing she wants lots of presents under a tree.

I'm sure we will agree on something I have no worries when it comes to karma and you at all.

Have you thought about the logistics of Karma's vacation during x-Mass? You will be coming with here? If don't fell doing that ... I thought either i will travel back to cairo and go back together, or you can check with Britney it can travel and Kouki loves her!

Please let me know as as in couple of weeks it's Christmas, as I need also start some events for her, Habibiti ❤️, and I checked stone mountains has many activities , lots of play is taking place, so please let me know what is plans ? At least I need to book the tickets from now.

Thanks
